Karynn Taylor

– CNA –

Hickory Creek at Columbus

Hickory Creek at Columbus is proud to announce that Karynn Taylor is our Quest for Excellence winner for 2022! Karynn has been a licensed CNA for the past six years and has been employed at our facility for the past four years. Karynn is truly dedicated to the care of her residents, ensuring all their needs are met. She always goes above and beyond when she is caring for the residents, their families, and her teammates. She honors the company Care Companion Commitment every time she works.

Karynn is quoted saying, “While I was in high school, I realized I had a passion for taking care of others, and just really loved people in general.” Knowing this prompted her to pursue her nursing assistant certification at a young age before graduating. She is also states, “I chose the long term care setting because I love the consistency of seeing the same residents daily, and building close relationships with them.”

One of her co-workers describes Karynn as, “a very funny person who loves to make her residents laugh with a genuinely kind spirit.” Her supervisor describes her as, “very dedicated and compassionate.”

When Karynn is not working, her other passion in life is caring for her two cats, Ollie and Honey.
