American Senior Communities' Linda Kuhn Recognized with a 2023 Senior Living Award by the IHCA/INCAL

Indianapolis, IN – American Senior Communities is pleased to announce that Linda Kuhn is the recipient of the prestigious IHCA/INCAL Senior Living Award. She has been honored with the Volunteer of the Year award for her service at Brownsburg Meadows Assisted Living. The IHCA/INCAL's annual Senior Living Award program recognizes professionals and volunteers in nursing facilities and assisted living communities across the state of Indiana for their exemplary contribution and unwavering commitment to delivering quality care. Award winners are selected from peer and colleague nominations.

"I can't think of anyone more deserving of this award," said Griffin Bilskie, Executive Director of Brownsburg Meadows Assisted Living. "Linda is truly a selfless individual who tries to improve the satisfaction of others in everything she does. She has such a passion for helping others. We couldn't ask for a better person to be a part of the Brownsburg Meadows family than Linda!"

"Our 2023 Senior Living Award honorees remind us that health care is more than just medicine. Through nutritious meals, arts and crafts, or a comforting smile or embrace, this year's recipients have enriched the lives of the seniors they serve," said Paul Peaper, president of IHCA/INCAL. "We hope their stories are an inspiration for all health care heroes in our state as we jointly work to serve Hoosiers."

Recipients of the 2023 Senior Living Awards were honored at the Association's annual Convention & Expo on Monday, July 31 at the JW Marriott Indianapolis, where more than 430 Indiana nurses, nursing assistants, health facility administrators, clinical staff and others working in long-term care and assisted living centers across the state were in attendance.
