U.S. News & World Report Recognizes Local Senior Care Community in Annual Best Nursing Homes Survey

Terre Haute, IN – Springhill Village was recently recognized in the top 14 nursing homes in Indiana by U.S. News & World Report in their annual “Best Nursing Homes” survey. The annual ranking evaluated over 15,000 top nursing homes across 51 states, with Springhill Village ranking in the top 14 nursing homes out of 524 in the state of Indiana.

Operated by American Senior Communities at 1001 E. Springhill Drive in Terre Haute, this senior care community offers short-term rehabilitation, outpatient therapy, long-term, respite and hospice care. To be recognized in this survey, a nursing home must be considered "high performing" in short-term rehabilitation, long-term rehabilitation, or both. Data is collected and published by the federal government using a methodology defined by U.S. News & World Report. For more information on this methodology, click here.

“This recognition is a testament to the exceptional level of care and dedication our team at Springhill Village consistently provides to their residents,” said American Senior Communities CEO, Steve Van Camp. “Their commitment to maintaining high standards of healthcare, safety, and overall resident well-being is truly something to celebrate.”
