The standards of the Baldrige Performance Excellence Program help organizations achieve superior performance over time to improve the quality of life and care of long-term care residents.

"Earning this award is a significant milestone, and we are incredibly proud of our teams. This honor would not be possible without their deep commitment to our core values, Compassion, Accountability, Relationships and Excellence (CARE). The process of achieving the Bronze Award truly strengthens the teams," said Steve Van Camp, CEO of American Senior Communities.
